Examiner's Detailed Action

1. Claims 1-14 are allowed.

Reason(s) for allowance

2. The following is the Examiner's statement for the reasons for allowance;

The closest prior art Reed et al. (USPN 5,862,325), does not explicitly teach or render obvious applying business rules to data used in a computer application.

AO
8/23/04 The ~~primary~~ reason for allowance is invoking the rule at the occurrence of each of a defined set of operations on the data and while the rule is stored in said external table, identifying a predetermined trigger condition for the rule, processing the rule if the predetermined trigger condition is satisfied to determine if data used in the computer application are valid.

To the extent that these elements do not explicitly exist or rendered obvious, applicant's claimed invention is allowed over the cited prior art.
